

White grape variety

Origin

Parents: Mtp 1-10-82 and Muscat de Hambourg N

Breeder: INRA – Bred by Alain Bouquet from Vitis vinifera X Vitis rotundifolia

Aptitude for wine

Phenology

Bud breaking: average.

Ripening: Second period, one week after the Chardonnay

Vigour and production

Very vigorous. Semi-erect habit.

Yields: 18 to 25 t/ha with irrigation

Regulatory situation:

Temporary classification since 2018

Resistance to fungal diseases

Powdery mildew	total
Downy mildew	+++

Resistance level : + = moderate resistance ; ++ = good resistance ; +++ = very good resistance

Variety experimentation location

Oenology parameters

Grape variety with high yields bred to produce quality wines with low alcohol content. Its wines are balanced, typical of a Muscat, often accompanied by rose, lychee and white peach aromas.